

AAH 2010 Conference Preview

Papers by Courtauld Institute of Art postgraduates

Friday, 12 March 2010

15.00, Research Forum South Room

The Research Forum has awarded travel scholarships to Courtauld Institute of Art postgraduate students who will be giving research papers at the 36th AAH Annual Conference which will take place at the University of Glasgow, 15th - 17th April 2010. This preview provides an opportunity to hear the papers of Jim Harris, Jack Hartnell and Edward Payne, recipients of the travel awards.

PROGRAMME

- |       |   |
|-------|---|
| 15.00 | Welcome – Francesco Lucchini (Research Forum Postdoctoral Fellow)                                 |
| 15.05 | Jack Hartnell: Spiritual Batteries: The Price of Reanimation and the Death of the Relic    |
| 15.45 | Jim Harris: Holy Wounds or a Good Kicking? Donatello, Vasari and the Varieties of Violence |
| 16.25 | BREAK   |
| 17.05 | Edward Payne: Britain's Bête Noire? The Reception of Ribera in the Nineteenth Century      |
| 17.45 | Discussion  |
| 18.00 | Reception   |

Open to all, free admission

Organised by Dr Francesco Lucchini