Founded in 1932, The Courtauld is synonymous with uncompromising excellence. It is a world class university and a leader in the study of art history, conservation and curating. Its graduates form an international powerhouse, going on to become the intellectual leads behind the world's greatest museums and galleries, influencing the arts and creative sectors on a global scale.

The Courtauld is also home to a critically acclaimed Gallery located in London's magnificent Somerset House. The Courtauld Gallery holds a 'collection of collections', significant works of art from the Renaissance to the contemporary including some of the world's most revered Impressionist masterpieces.

The Courtauld's ambition is to transform access to art history by extending the horizons of what this is, and ensuring as many people as possible can benefit from the tools to better understand the visual world around us.

We invite you to become a part of this remarkable institution.
